

TRAE WIENIEWITZ

Almost six years ago, Hurricane Katrina devastated the Gulf Coast of Mississippi and Louisiana. Thousands of families were displaced, their existences turned upside down, their lives put on hold. At the time, Trae had a thriving financial planning business that served clients in the Baton Rouge, New Orleans and Mississippi Gulf Coast areas. On August 29, 2005, after an estimated $81 billion of damage though, everything changed.

Rather than change the way he did business, Trae took a proven business plan he believed in, packed up his house, his office, his family and moved 10 hours away to Knoxville, TN, where he knew absolutely no one.

Since then, Trae, 34, has built a multi-million dollar practice from scratch, opened a tax preparation business and is a mentor to hundreds of other advisors.

In addition, Trae is founder of "Cruisin' for a Cause," a community give-back program. This is a classic car show that raises money to benefit www.SpecialSpaces.org, as featured on the ABC show Secret Millionaire. Trae was also named as one of the 2011 Senior Market Advisor Magazine Advisor of the Year Finalist!
